

Who are you?

Remove yourself

Because you are priceless, but worthless,

Floating...

The most insignificant thing that ever existed.

Aphonic noise...

Precludes every paranoia;

Into your self conscious

Realise,

You are Nothing,

nothing sees you; as nothing,

nothing makes you

and nothing has heard you,

as nothing will save you,

as everyone sees;

in this vacuum created,

How the animals die,

The children are beaten;

The afflicted can't reason:

A face in the crowd-How do you feel?
